

FOOD SAMPLE REMOVAL POLICY

Pay close attention to this sampling policy as it will be enforced on site.

Event Management has instituted a sampling policy for Seafood Expo North America in order to maintain a professional environment and address Department of Health regulations for food safety. Event Management asks for your assistance in this matter.

- Please alert all booth staff including sales representatives of this policy.
- No food samples should be given to contracted labor in the form of tips.
- Wheeled carts are not permitted on the show floor during official expo hours

1. All product sampling must be done on the expo floor.
 2. Attendees will not be permitted to exit the expo hall with product samples. Please make the appropriate arrangements to ship samples to attendees if required.
 3. Samples that attendees attempt to remove from the expo floor will be confiscated at the exits and donated to charity or thrown away. Please note: absolutely no perishable seafood may exit the expo hall. This product may have been part of a display that has sat out for many days. In the interest of food safety all perishable seafood will be thrown away at the exits.

Exhibitors are permitted to remove product from the expo hall by showing a picture ID, such as a Driver's License, accompanied by their Exhibitor Badge.
